

Please keep fighting the banks. I signed up on the no call list for good reasons, mainly my family and their privacy. Besides if we let the banks find a loop hole and use it, soon all the other telemarketers and solicitors will be trying to do it too.